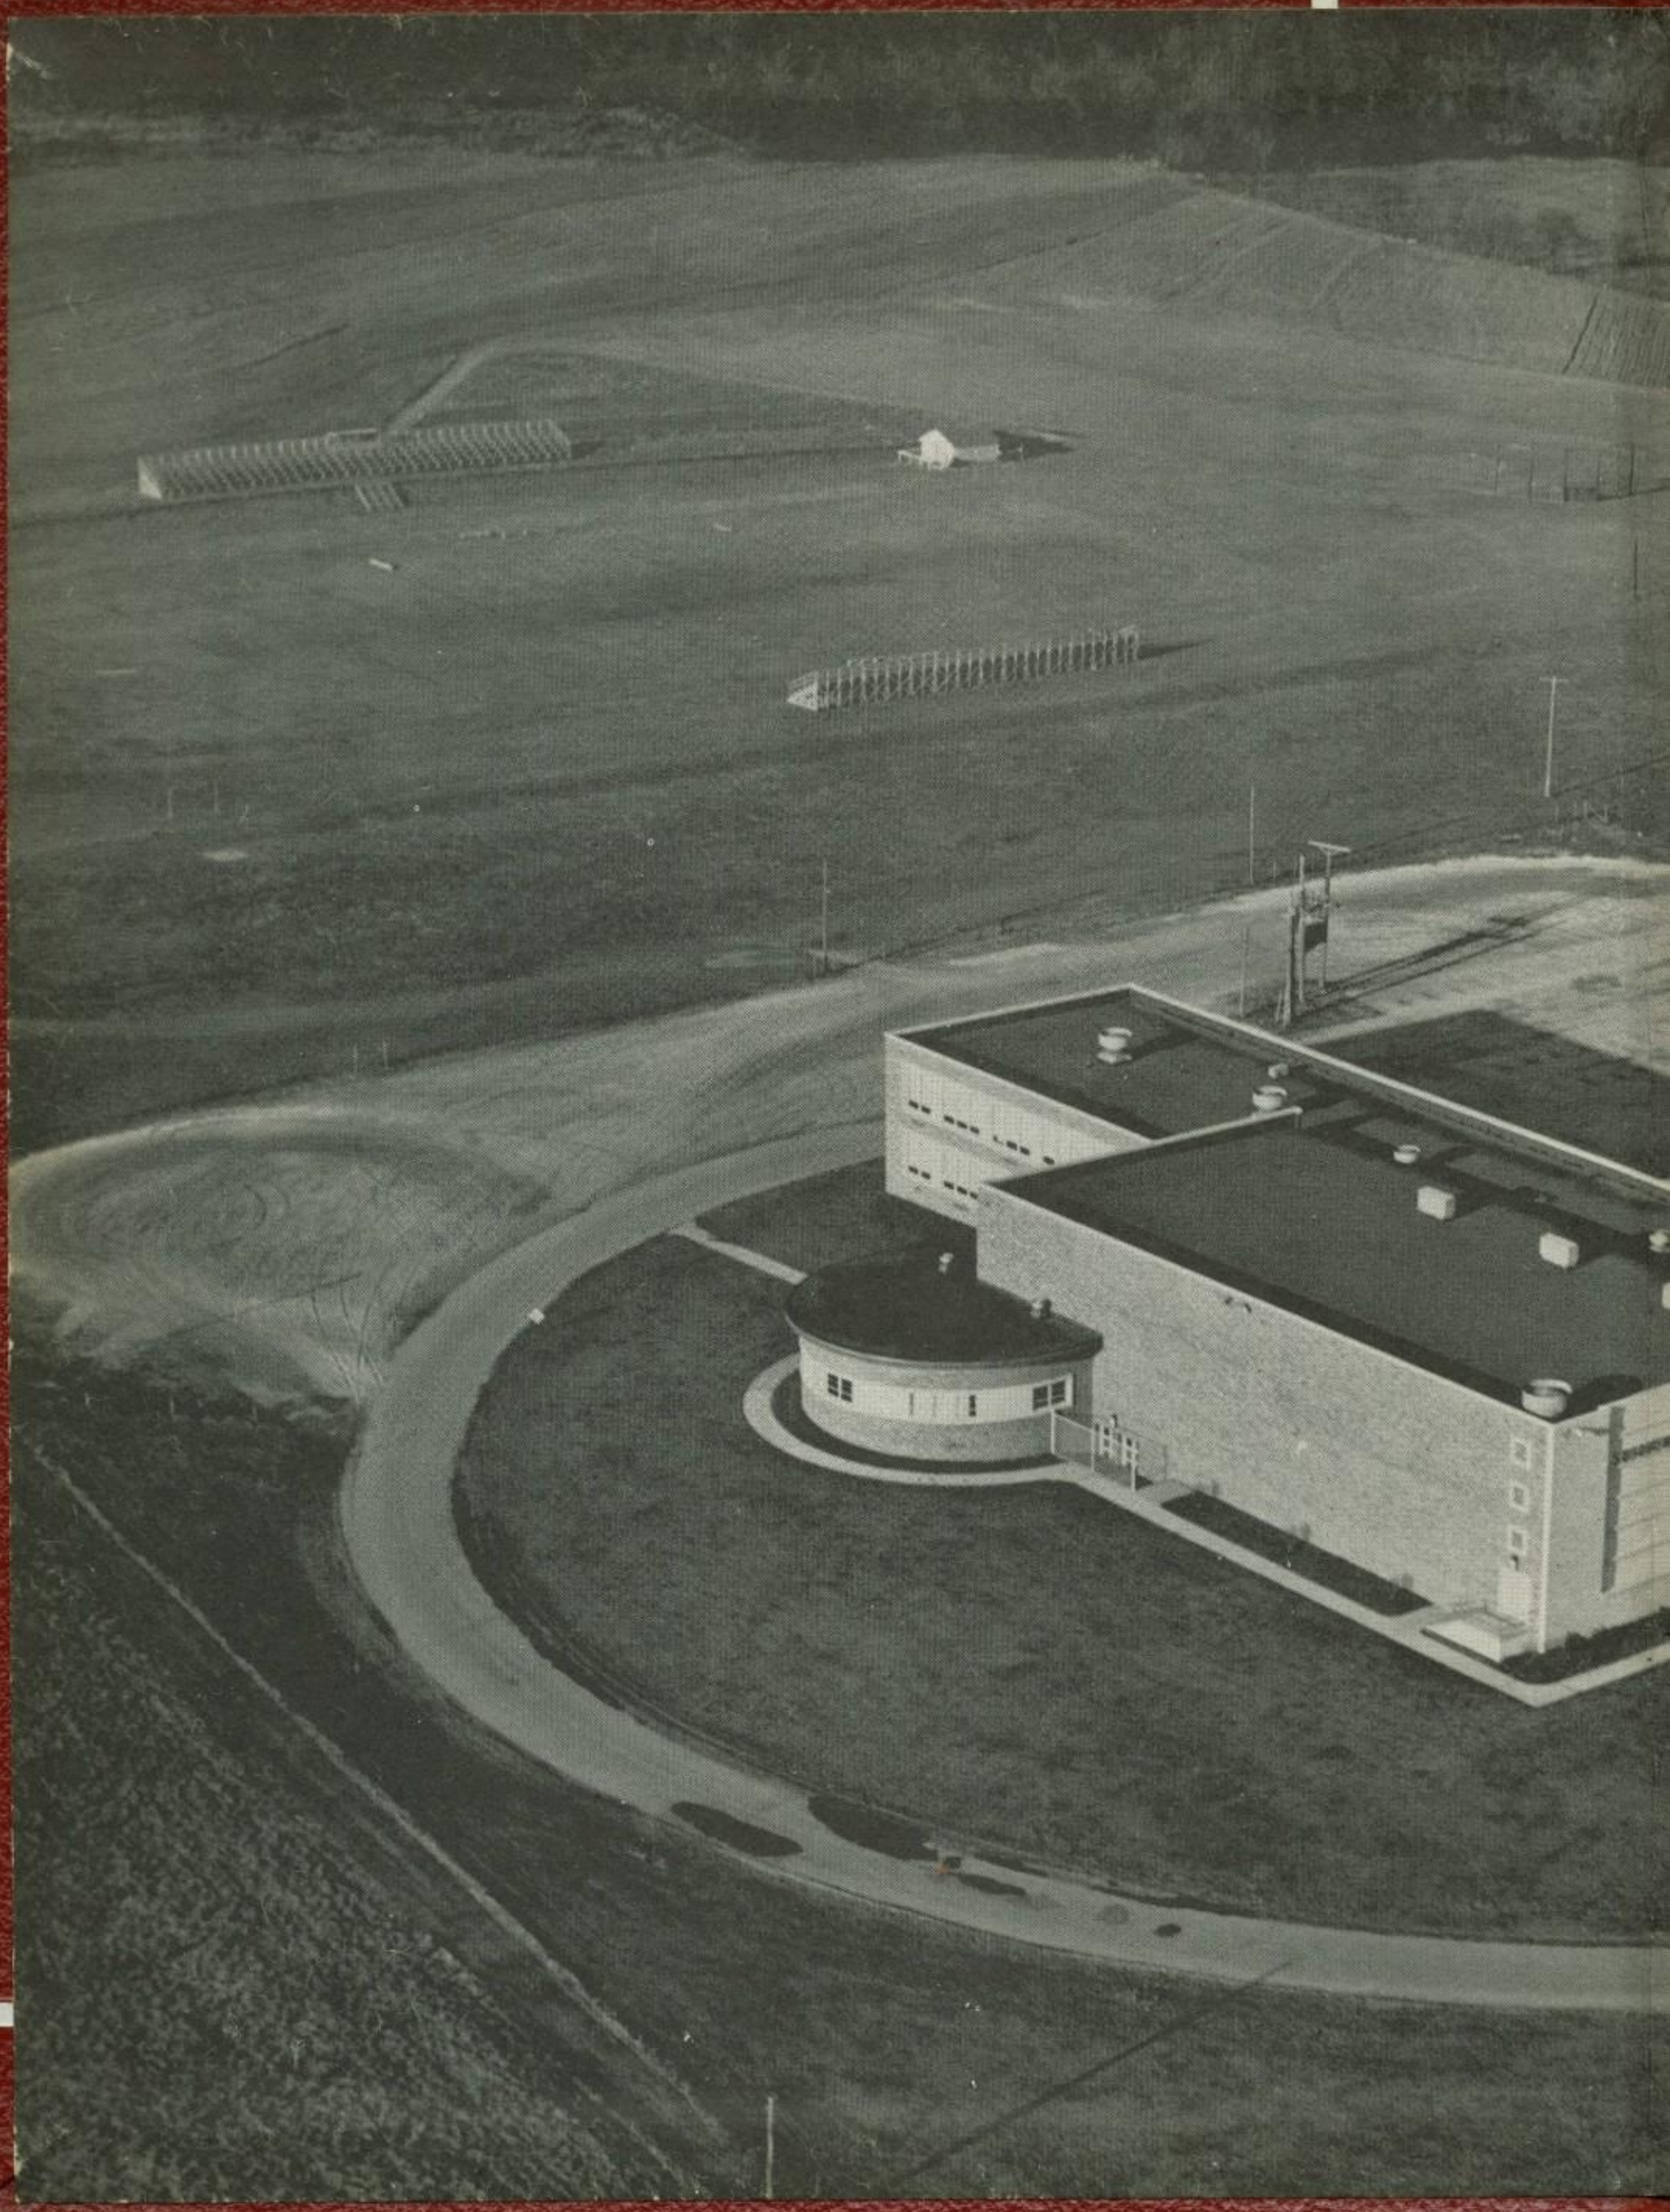
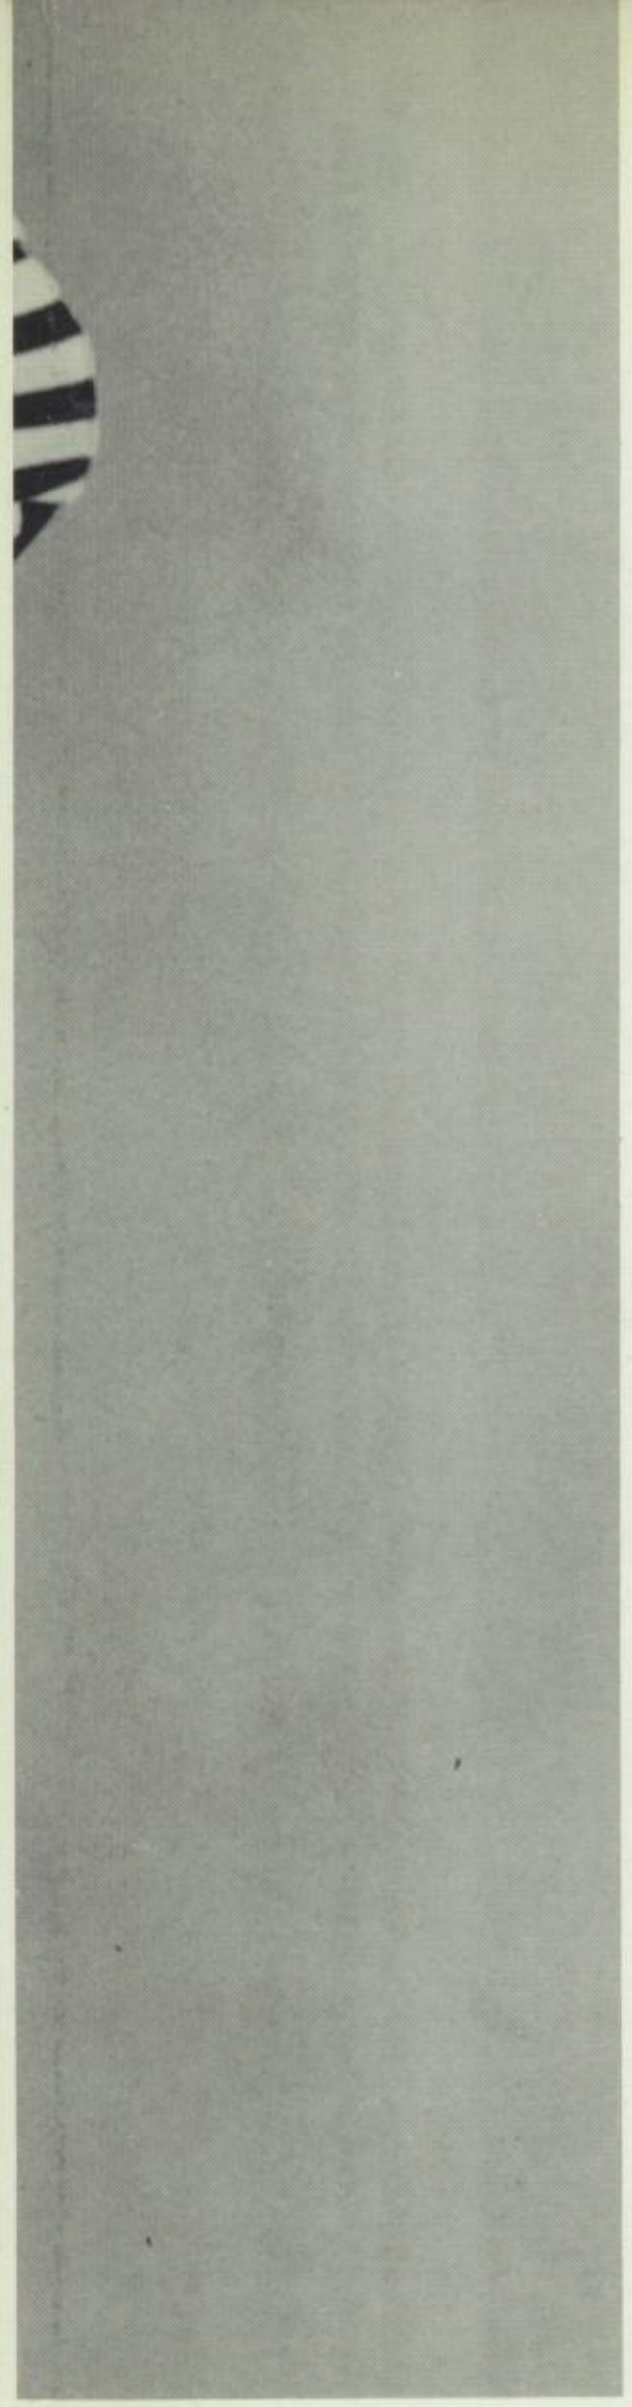
CALUMET '58



The Calumet

Volume No. VII

Glen Rock, Pa.



Foreword

The sound of happy voices, the spirit of good sportsmanship, the molding of ideas and aspirations, all combine to enrich our experiences at Susquehannock.

In the hope of creating a worthy souvenir of memorable days at Susquehannock for students and friends, we, the Staff of 1958, present this seventh edition of the Calumet.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America, is preparing students for a future in the teaching profession. The eight members of the club took trips to various schools to observe the different methods of teaching. The club is offered to all senior high students and it is sponsored by Mr. Robert Cox and Mr. Clair Grim.

The officers for this year were Roberta Stermer, President; Peggy Frederick, Vice President; and Joan Williams, Secretary.

THEATRE ARTS CLUB

This club is for students who like and plan to go on to machine work. They repair broken things around school and also make the scenery for the class plays.

The nineteen members of the club are under the direction of Mr. P. T. Huddle and Mr. Lowell Wallace.

The officers for this year are: David Miller, President; Ray Masimore, Vice President; Denny Jones, Secretary and Treasurer, and Dean Miller, also Secretary and Treasurer.

QUO VADIS

To further a knowledge of Latin and Roman culture is the purpose of the Quo Vadis Club, sponsored by Miss Phyllis Krumrine. The thirty members of the club held their annual Roman Banquet in November, 1957. The Pennsylvania J.C.L. convention was also sponsored by the club on May 9-10.

The officers for this year were: Aija Melbardis, President; Nadine Gladfelter, Vice President; Sondra Sechrist, Secretary; and Darlene Brenneman, Treasurer.

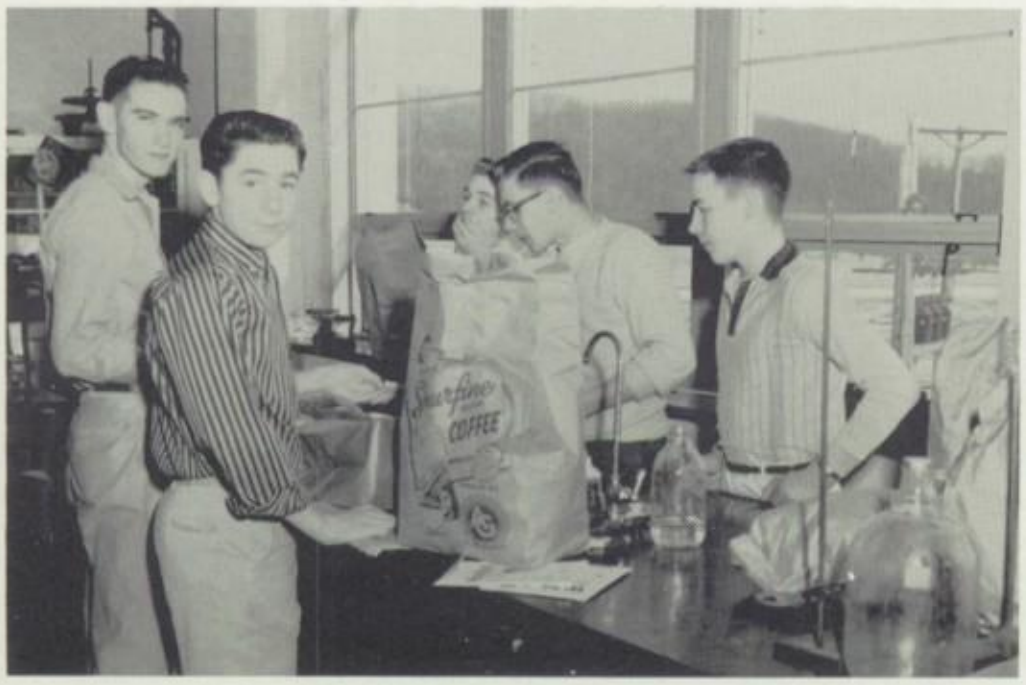
Clubs

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The purpose of the Photography club is to learn to take and process good pictures. The members of the club, under the supervision of Mr. Sidney Eharhart, assist in taking pictures for the Courier and the Calumet. This club has proved to be an asset to both school publications.



SCIENCE CLUB

Grinding telescope lens, growing crystals and studying the efficiency of the bunsen burner were among the activities of the ten members of the Science Club. Under the supervision of Mr. Melvin Wagner, they also worked on other practical science experiments.

OFFICE CLUB

The purpose of the Office Club, under the direction of Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Smith, the school secretaries, is to learn the duties of Office workers. The club is open to both boys and girls, who are interested in clerical work. In addition to helping the secretaries, the members also learn to use different types of office equipment.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWSPAPER CLUB

The JUNIOR HIGH NEWSPAPER CLUB, under the direction of Mr. Roland Heathcote and Mr. William Wolf, was created to give the Junior High students a better understanding of the methods of operating a newspaper and to give them experience for the future work on the Courier.

The club published eight issues this year which were distributed to all Junior High students.

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

Girls' Intramurals is open to all sports-minded girls in the Junior and Senior High. The club, under the supervision of Miss Nancy Boyle, meets on Monday mornings, first period, and organizes teams to play the sport in season at that time.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

The purpose of the F.N.A., under the leadership of Mrs. Anderson, the school nurse, is to acquaint members with nursing and its requirements. Several phases of nursing were studied by means of flims, guest speakers and lectures. In addition to sending favors to children in hospitals, the group also visited several hospitals and schools of nursing.

Officers for this year were: Stephanie Spiegle, President; Barbara Cross, Vice President; Phyllis Stermer, Secretary; Linda Miller, Treasurer; and Nadine Gladfelter, Corresponding Secretary.

BOYS' INTRAMURALS

Boys' Intramurals is open to any sports-minded boy in the Junior and Senior High. The club, under the supervision of Mr. Hamme and Mr. Thurston, meets on Monday and Wednesday mornings, first period, and organizes teams to play the sport of the season.

RIDING CLUB

The Riding Club, under the direction of Mr. Russell Hare and Mrs. Sarah Graham, was created to develop better horsemanship. The club meets two times a month and has lectures or films on the care and training of horses. The site for their rides is at River Valley Ranch, Lineboro, Md.

The club's officers were Karen Hare, President; Donna Glatfelter, Vice President; and Marilyn Mickey, Secretary.

LIBRARY CLUB

This club, composed of approximately seventy junior and senior high students, was created to help and instruct students in the duties of running a library. The members of the club serve as assistants during school.

The meeting of this club is sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Holahan, the school librarian, and is presided over by Sharon Bamforth. The other officers are Sally Kiser, Vice President; Connie Walker, Secretary; and Wanda Osborne, Treasurer.

JUNIOR FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Knitting, crocheting, and making place mats are some of the individual projects of the Junior F.H.A. members. As a group, the club has made favors for various hospitals on Christmas and Thanksgiving. The club, under the direction of Mrs. Noss, has 34 members and meets every week.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU advertisers, teachers, and everyone else who has made this yearbook possible.

We would especially like to thank Mr. Bortner, our advisor, who helped us through "many" trying times.
